II. Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(ii): Documents and Information That Plaintiffs May Use to Support Their Claims or Defenses

Subject to the foregoing reservations and objections, as of this time, Plaintiffs may use the following categories of documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things in their possession, custody, or control to support their claims, unless the use would be solely for impeachment: contracts between Plaintiffs and Defendant Zuffa, LLC concerning their promotional, merchandising and likeness rights; communications concerning Plaintiffs' compensation received in connection with their careers as Elite Professional MMA Fighters; communications between Plaintiffs and Defendant concerning Plaintiffs' careers as Elite Professional MMA Fighters; publicly available documents and information regarding Defendant's operations, revenues and activities; publicly available documents and information regarding the operations, revenues and activities of other MMA promoters; interviews and statements made by Defendant's employees; interviews and statements made by Elite Professional MMA Fighters; interviews and statements made by employees of other MMA promoters regarding the MMA industry and comparable professional sports.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the foregoing categories of documents will be available for inspection and copying (subject to appropriate protections against the disclosure of privileged communications and information) at the offices of Joseph Saveri Law Firm, Inc., upon reasonable request subject to entry of a suitable protective order.

III. Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iii): Computation of Plaintiffs' Damages

Plaintiffs seek treble damages resulting from being undercompensated artificially as a result of Defendant's violation of the antitrust laws, pre-judgment interest, post-judgment interest and attorneys' fees and costs. Plaintiffs have not yet determined the full amount of damages sustained as a result of Defendants' violation of the antitrust laws. A determination of damages in this case is subject to substantive and expert discovery. The time for expert discovery has not yet commenced and substantive discovery is not complete. Disclosure of expert testimony will be made in conformity with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) and Orders entered by the Court in connection therewith. Counsel are continuing their investigation and reserve their right to further supplement their disclosures pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1) or as otherwise agreed by the parties.

IV. Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iv): Insurance Policies

Not applicable.
